

K. Hepburn, Steiger Triumph

LAURELS — Three of the four big winners hold their Oscars at the annual Academy Awards presentation ceremony in Santa Monica. From left: Rod Steiger, best actor of 1967; Estelle Parsons, best supporting actress; and George Kennedy, best supporting actor. —AP Photo

'In Heat of Night' Wins Oscar as Best '67 Film

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (UPI)—Katharine Hepburn was the surprise winner of the best-actress Oscar Wednesday night in the 40th annual Academy Awards presentations and Rod Steiger won best-actor award for "In the Heat of the Night."

Best motion picture of 1967 was voted "In the Heat of the Night," which captured five Oscars in all.

Miss Hepburn, a sentimental favorite, won the best-actress award for her portrayal in "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner" of a mother faced with the problem of seeing her daughter involved

(Cont. on Page 23, Col. 1)

Katharine Hepburn . . . in prize role

24,500 Called Up; 10,000 for Vietnam

U.S. Rejects Warsaw as Site for Talks

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Defense Secretary Clark M. Clifford announced Thursday the immediate call-up of about 24,500 Army, Navy and Air Force reservists. Some 10,000 of them will be sent to South Vietnam.

In a political development the U.S. Thursday rejected a North Vietnamese proposal that preliminary U.S.-North Vietnamese peace discussions be held in Warsaw, Poland.

Presidential press secretary

(Cont. on Page 24, Col. 1)

Leftist Leader Shot in Berlin

BERLIN (AP)—Rudi Dutschke, the firebrand symbol of West German leftist student unrest, was shot and critically wounded Thursday in broad daylight on the Kurfuerstendamm, West Berlin's main street.

Police wounded and captured his assailant after trading more than 20 shots with him in an

(Cont. on Page 24, Col. 2)

'Braves' Use Know-How

SHOW OFF—Spec. 5 Jack Hedrick finds himself confronted with a happy alternative—which of these girls to make his favorite pen pal. Some guys have all the luck.—S&S, Schuettler

By CHARLES GRAHAM
Staff Writer

BAMBERG, Germany (S&S)—It all started as a gag. Five guys here got tired of cleaning spider webs from their mail boxes, so they all sat down and thought up a funny letter about how they were Indian braves, who were good fighters but weren't getting many "air mail smoke signals" from fair

Indian maidens back home in the village way on the other side of the great sky blue water—or something like that.

When the letter was written,

(Cont. on Page 2, Col. 2)

The STARS and STRIPES

Unofficial newspaper of U.S. Forces in Europe, North Africa and the Middle East

Vol. 26, No. 358

1F 21855 A

Friday, April 12, 1968

5¢ daily, 10¢ Sunday

D

O'Brien Endorses Kennedy

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Lawrence F. O'Brien, one of the nation's top political pros, Thursday endorsed Sen. Robert F. Kennedy for the Democratic presidential nomination. He is preparing to become a top Kennedy campaign strategist as soon as his departure from the Johnson administration becomes final, a source said.

O'Brien, who managed President Johnson's 1964 campaign and was a key figure in John F. Kennedy's 1960 presidential drive, said in a statement:

"I endorse the candidacy of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy for president of the United States

(Cont. on Page 23, Col. 1)

Weather

Continued fair and cool. Little change Friday. Frankfurt-Heidelberg high 54, low 31. Temperatures recorded Thursday (CET)

4	4	4	4
am	pm	am	pm
54	77	42	57
55	59	30	43
44	55	39	54
31	43	43	52
28	46	43	59
36	48	63	82
London, p		Wheelus, s

c-clear; p-partly cloudy; s-snow.