

24,500 Reserves Called; 10,000 for Vietnam

George Christian said the U.S. government is pressing for "an appropriate site in neutral territory."

Christian told reporters that the selection of a neutral site "should be achieved promptly through mutual agreement," with no effort on either side to make the site selection a propaganda matter.

In his first full-dress news conference, the new defense secretary said that no decision has been made at this time whether to call any additional reservists.

Of the total, the Army will supply 20,000 from the 76 units of the National Guard and Army Reserve.

Clifford also said that President Johnson intends at this time to limit U.S. forces in Vietnam to 549,500—representing an increase of 24,500 over the present ceiling.

Clifford linked this presidential decision to limit further U.S. deployment to another major decision "to turn over the major effort gradually to the South Vietnamese."

The new secretary, in office only six weeks, said the decision to move toward turning over the biggest part of the war effort to Vietnam has been made after months of consultations with the Vietnamese and it took into account the Saigon government's decision to boost its forces by 135,000 men.

The new Pentagon chief said the 24,500 Army, Navy and Air Force reservists being called to duty for up to 24 months are in some 88 units.

"Each man will have a minimum of 30 days' notice before reporting," Clifford said.

Johnson in January called to active duty 14,787 air reservists in the wake of the North Korean seizure of the intelligence ship Pueblo.

These men are still on active duty. None has gone overseas as yet.

Clifford did not indicate when the 10,000 newly called reservists will go to Vietnam.

Clifford also said:

—The United States has "ample forces" in its military establishment to cope with civil disturbances in this country.

—Some time before Johnson's March 31 speech, North Vietnam stepped up "rather substantially" its infiltration into South Vietnam. He said that since then no change in the stepped-up rate had been detected.

—The Administration intends to send to Congress shortly a message concerning supplemental defense appropriations.

2 Officers Haul Down Russ Flag

BAMBERG, Germany (UPI)—Two U.S. Army lieutenants, who police said removed a Soviet flag from its mast outside the Bamberg train station, caused their commanding officer to visit the city mayor Thursday and apologize for the incident.

The flag fluttered with banners of other nations outside the station to honor an international chess tournament taking place in the city, police said. Or it did until Wednesday night when the two officers hauled it down and tried to make off with it, they said.

A U.S. military spokesman in Bamberg said two officers were under investigation in connection with the incident. He identified them as 2nd Lt. Darrell S. Mudd, 25, of Russell, Kan., and 2nd Lt. Terry D. J. Moses, 24, of Rush City, Minn.

He said the commanding officer of the 4th Armd Div's 3rd Brigade, Col. Jack K. Gilham, apologized to Mayor Georg Grosch for the incident. He said the officers would be punished if found guilty of removing the flag.

Grosch confirmed Thursday night that Gilham had made an official apology.

The two officers were released into Gilham's custody, spokesman said, but had not been restricted.

IN A JAM—As some malicious soul once said: the autobahn at holiday time is Germany's biggest parking lot. Pre-Easter is no exception, as this photo taken Thursday on the Frankfurt-Mannheim autobahn proves. But you're okay if you're headed north like that lone, smirking fellow in the car on the "sunny side of the street" (right background). —Schuettler hour-long gun duel. Both Dutschke, 28, and the man said to be his assailant were reported in critical condition.

German Leftist Leader Shot in Berlin

Police said the man, about 25 years old, carried no identification and they have so far not been able to establish who he is.

The shooting immediately sent shock waves through West Berlin's and West Germany's student organizations, many of whose members earlier this week took part in memorial services for slain American civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

About 3,000 students of West Berlin's technical University started a march to the Axel Springer publishing concern, adjoining the wall that divides West Berlin from the Communist sector of the city.

Springer, publisher of many of West Germany's and West Berlin's major newspapers, has long been a target of Dutschke's Socialist Student Federation (SDS).

About 350 young student demonstrators marched in Frankfurt carrying banners. One said "Springer's agitation had success. Attempted assassination of Dutschke."

West German Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger and West Berlin Lord Mayor Klaus Schuetz sent telegrams to Dutschke's American wife, Gretchen, who was at her husband's side in a West Berlin hospital.

Kurt Neubauer, West Berlin's senator of the interior, told a news conference that doctors gave Dutschke "a chance of surviving."

He said the student leader was shot three times as he was mounting his bicycle in front of the SDS office. One bullet lodged in the brain and the others hit him in the right cheek and in the right side of his chest, Neubauer said.

The Bonn government issued a statement which resembled Washington's appeal to Americans after the assassination last week of the Rev. Martin Luther King.

"Violence in any form must not be used as a means of settling political differences. The federal government appeals to all citizens to shun violence," said the statement by deputy press spokesman Conrad Ahlers.

Dutschke's wife, the former Gretchen Klotz, described by German newspapers as the daughter of a Chicago druggist, said in a recent interview that she lived in constant fear for her husband's safety.

She said he had many enemies and preferred to travel in taxis for security reasons. But opponents even had repeatedly tried to block the path of taxis in which he was riding, she added.

Mrs. Dutschke gave birth about three months ago to a son who was named Hosea-Che in honor of the Old Testament prophet and the late Cuban revolutionary leader Che Guevara.

Stocks Make Sharp Gains

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed with a sharp gain Thursday as prospects for peace talks grew warmer. Trading was active and the ticker tape lagged.

Stocks took off in a rally after news came that U.N. Secretary U Thant had said U.S.-North Vietnam talks could begin in a matter of two or three days.

Glamour stocks and blue chips together made significant gains. Securities and commodities exchanges will be closed on Good Friday.

Ferry Deaths Set at 52

WELLINGTON, N.Z. (UPI) — Fifty-two men, women and children died in the sinking of the ferry Wahine outside stormy Wellington Harbor Wednesday, police reported Thursday. Forty-six bodies were recovered from the beaches and six more persons were listed as missing.
