

Ulrike Meinhof Caught

GANG LEADER — Ulrike Meinhof, ideological head of the Baader-Meinhof anarchist band, is taken from an apartment in Hannover where she was arrested Thursday night. —AP Photo

By DAN SYNOVEC
Staff Writer

HANNOVER, Germany (S&S) — Ulrike Meinhof, co-leader of the leftist Baader-Meinhof gang, was arrested at 7 p.m. Thursday in an apartment in the Hannover suburb of Langenhagen.

The arrest of Miss Meinhof, who was dressed in black and who looked like a shadow of her former chubby self, came in a bleak workers' apartment 15 days after the arrest of Andreas Baader in Frankfurt, the gang's other co-leader, and two companions.

Members of the gang have been subjects of the largest police manhunt in West Germany since World War II, following a series of anarchist bombings and robberies.

German papers were printing extras to announce the capture. A long holiday weekend would have meant there would have been no announcement in newspapers until Monday morning.

A German student said that when the news of the Meinhof capture was announced by one of her high school teachers in Darmstadt, the class cheered.

Police withheld announcement of the arrest until Friday after they had made certain of the suspect's identification. A man with the fugitive was picked up at the same time.

A nine-pound bomb was found in a red cosmetic case along with a submachine gun, three revolvers, several magazines of bullets, including dum-dum bullets, and tools and materials for making bombs, said a criminal police spokesman.

Criminal police officials said they found evidence in Miss Meinhof's possession that indicated further terrorist attacks were planned. They also found a list of addresses of persons living in Germany and abroad.

In the past federal criminal police complained to newspapers that part of the difficulty in tracing the members of the gang resulted from their receiving aid from sympathizers.

Hans-Joachim Butte, head of the special police squad in Hannover, said Miss Meinhof was positively identified by an X-ray photograph of her skull.

The X-rays were indisputable since she has been under treatment for a benign brain tumor and as part of the treatment she had small silver clamps fixed inside her skull, near the right ear.

Among the large quantity of bombs, grenades, and other weapons and ammunition, po-
(Cont. on Page 27, Col. 1)

The STARS and STRIPES

AUTHORIZED UNOFFICIAL PUBLICATION FOR THE U.S. ARMED FORCES

Vol. 31, No. 61

Saturday, June 17, 1972

10¢ Daily and Sunday

1F 21855 A

64-Nation Pilot Strike Set Monday

NEW YORK (AP) — The pilots in 64 nations, including the United States, will strike for 24 hours Monday to protest hijacking dangers, the International Federation of Airline Pilots Association said Friday.

In Washington earlier, the U.S. Air Line Pilots Association ordered its members to take part in a worldwide protest.

"This drastic action is the result of the lack of effective international measures to stem the tide of unlawful interference with civil aviation and constitutes a strong expression of deep concern and solidarity on the part of the world's aviation community," federation president Capt. Ola Forsberg, told a news conference.

On June 19

The action by U.S. pilots was to take effect at 2 a.m., Monday, John J. O'Donnell, ALPA president, told a Washington news conference.

The office of information of the secretary of the Air Force in Washington, D.C., said that the IFALPA office had advised that scheduled CONUS and MAC charter flights, would not be affected by the walkout.

"Passengers port-called for MAC international charter flights are advised to respond to port calls so as to be available at aerial ports for scheduled departure," the announcement said.

The international federation, representing 50,000 pilots said on June 8 it would suspend civil aviation services unless the United Nations Security Council took effective action against hijackings.

O'Donnell said the air service shutdown was ordered because of failure of the United Nations to take effective action regarding enforcement of international convictions against hijackers and extortionists.

Later Friday the president of the Security Council summoned the 15 council members to gather informally Monday and seek agreement on a statement against hijacking.

"Under law, airline pilots are charged with the responsibility for the lives of the passengers entrusted to them," O'Donnell said. "When some world governments are unable or unwilling to insure that level of safety and security that we demand, and you the traveling

(Cont. on Page 28, Col. 2)

Judge Orders UMW Election

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A federal judge ordered the United Mine Workers Union Friday to conduct a new election by Jan. 1. The judge, William B. Bryant, on May 1 voided the 1969 re-election of W.A. "Tony" Boyle as president of the coal miners' union.

Bryant's May 1 decision found the UMW guilty of a series of Landrum-Griffin law violations in its conduct of the 1969 election. Bryant in declaring that result "null and void" said a new election must be held under supervision of the Labor Department, which brought the court action.

Yablonski Defeat

Boyle defeated Joseph A. "Jock" Yablonski, a union insurgent, by a nearly 2-1 margin. Yablonski had complained throughout the campaign that unfair and illegal activities were conducted by officials of the 190,000-member union to aid Boyle.

Yablonski charged that miners were denied the opportunity to vote in secret, that union officials refused to inform Yablonski observers of voting places, and that they used the union newspaper to promote Boyle's candidacy.

Yablonski, his wife and daughter, were found murdered at their Clarksville, Pa., home less than a month after the balloting. Several UMW officials have been indicted in connection with the slayings.

Bryant's order affected all the officers chosen in the 1969
(Cont. on Page 28, Col. 2)

Bogus Biographer

Irving Gets Jail Term

NEW YORK (UPI)—Clifford Irving was sentenced to two and a half years in prison, his wife Edith was given a two month term and they were fined $10,000 each Friday for concocting the literary fraud of the century—the bogus Howard Hughes autobiography.

Richard Suskind, a researcher for Irving, received a six month jail sentence.

Attorneys for Irving, who apparently feared a jail term and was rushing work on a new book about about how he engineered the hoax, indicated they would appeal.

The $20,000 in fines was $480,000 less than the half a million dollars Irving reportedly is asking Lancer Books Inc. of New York for his new manuscript.

In low voices, barely audible to either spectators or federal Judge John M. Cannella, both Irvings approached the me-lodramatic in their passionate pleas for clemency.

His voice breaking, the 41-year-old Irving said. "What I did was for our children. And the thought of prison and what it would mean to all of us..." His voice trailed off and he low-
(Cont. on Page 28, Col. 1)