Rogers Adds

2 More Days

To His Tour

Cloud 9

As the temperatures soared into the 90's, Ruth White escapes the heat, humidity and humanity of Chicago by relaxing on a rooftop sundeck overlooking the downtown area. The only thing that appears to be missing is the warning sign — "Don't Pick the Flowers."

—United Press International Photo

Fla. Rehabilitation Plan

Parents Testify on 'Seed' Drug Success

MIAMI (UPI)—"I thought I was the top expert on drugs in Miami, then I found out my own 15-ye a r-old daughter was hooked on cocaine," former U.S. Commissioner Edward Swan told a congressional committee.

"I handled all kinds of drug cases, from customs, the FBI and other agencies. I knew it all," he said.

"But I've been re-educated in the last 90 days. I knew just this much." He held up his thumb and forefinger spaced close to-

Until the Justice Department replaced the U.S. commissioners with federal magistrates ers with federal magistrates about a year ago, Swan was one of many attorneys who held arraignments or set bonds on federal offenses, including many drug cases. He maintains his private law practice.

Swan, father of six children, testified Thursday before Rep. Claude Pepper's House Select Committee on Crime and Drug Abuse.

Pepper, a Miami Democrat, and four other congressmen conducted three days of hearings in the Miami area on the problems of drug abuse among school-age children.

The hearing ended Friday.

Another father, Dr. E. (Jack) Taylor, vice president of stu-dent affairs at Fort Lauderdale University, described how his 19-year-old daughter was rehabilitated after three years as a heroin addict.

"I wasn't a bad parent," said Taylor as Swan nodded agreement. Their daughters, they said, started with marijuana under pressure to stay in step with their school friends.

When no other treatments or consultations worked both consultations worked, both forced their children to enroll in "The Seed," a project in nearby Fort Lauderdale aimed at rehabilitating school-age children hooked on drugs.

"When I put Kathy in the program, she was 15 and had been using drugs for two years,' Swan said. "She screamed for her lawyer.

"After two weeks, when we attended one of the meetings, she still tried to con us, whispering "Take me home." Her mother and I just smiled and whispered back, "We love you." The experience will tear your heart out." heart out."

Wide Usage
Four teen-age "graduates" of
The Seed and its director, Art

Barker, testified that 75 to 80 per cent of junior and senior high students in both public and private schools are using some BELGRADE (UPI) — U.S. Secretary of State William P. Rogers said Saturday he is extending his round-the-world tour by two days for talks with the Italian government and the Pope in Rome.

"Following my talks with President Tito I will proceed to Rome at President Nixon's request for talks on July 10 with the new Italian government, and on July 11 with His Holines. the Pope," Rogers said.

Rogers' meeting in Rome will

Rogers' meeting in Rome will

private schools are using some sort of drugs.

The Seed program teaches the youths 9 to 20 years old to love and respect themselves, their country and their parents and to be honest with everyone, the testimony brought out.

For Swan and Taylor there are happy endings. Both daughters, they said, no longer use drugs and the families have gained new awareness, atti-gained new awareness, atti-tudes and knowledge about each other.

be the first high-level U.S. contact with the newly formed government of Premier Giulio Andreotti. Andreotti heads a coalition of Christian Democrats, Social Democrats, and Liberals — the first government in 10 years to leave out the Socialists.

Earlier, Rogers told Yugoslav leaders in Belgrade that a European security conference should insure Yugoslavia's "free movement of people and ideas."

Rogers met with Yugoslav Premier Dzemal Bujedic in preparation for his Sunday lunch with President Tito on the Adriatic island of Brioni.

U.S. officials said Rogers also wanted to reassure Yugoslavia that its borders are not threatened by any "deals" between th United States and he Soviet Union.

Visibly tired from seven straight days of talks in nearly as many capitals, Rogers planned a half-day's rest Saturday in the Adriatic resort town of Dubrovnik.

Gang Hunt Corrals 3

OFFENBACH, (AP) — Two more of the West German Baader-Meinhof terror-ist gang fell into the hands of police Saturday as they stood at a newsstand in this city bordering on Frankfurt.

Police identified the pair as Klaus Juenschke, 24, and Irmgard Moeller, 25. A third unidentified person, whom police said was a peripheral member of the gang, was captured and one person escaped, police said.

All three of those arrested were armed, police said.

Saturday arrests were the latest in a string starting June 1 when Frankfurt police laid siege to an apartment house in leader Andreas Baader with two top gang lieutenants.

Further arrests throughout West Germany and West Berlin since then have put the bulk of the gang — including Baader's alleged girl friend, Gudrun Ensslin, and band ideologist Ulrike Meinhof — behind bars.

Turks Veto American Patriarch

1. TANBUL (UPI) — The Turkish government Saturday vetoed the candidacy of an American archbishop as a possible successor to Patriarch Athenagoras I, the spiritual leader of 157 million Eastern Orthodox faithful.

A Foreign Ministry spokes-man said Archbishop Iakovos, 60, of New York was not acceptable because he is a U.S. citizen. Iakovos has been archbishop for North and South America since 1959.

Government spokesman Semih Akbil said a treaty between Greece and Turkey in 1923 lowed only Turkish subjects to become patriarchs of Constantinople (now Istanbul).

However, Athenagoras was elected in 1948 although he was horn in Greece and become an born in Greece and became an American citizen after his election in 1930 as archbishop for North and South America.

The Turkish government conferred citizenship on Athenagoras after his election in 1948 and his flight to Istanbul aboard President Harry S. Truman's personal plane, Air Force One.

Church sources in Istanbul, where Orthodox leaders are trying to elect a successor to Athenagoras, said Iakovos had been one of the strong favorites to become patriarch.

Athenagoras, 85, died Friday a week after ne tell and broke a leg while climbing a flight of stairs at a monastery.

Church sources said other highly regarded candidates for election as the 269th patriarch included Archbishop Meliton of Chalcedon, 59, currently acting as caretaker of Athenagoras'

Protestants Raze Some Barriers

BELFAST (UPI) - Protestant militants tore down two of their newly built street barricades Saturday and promised to dismantle a third. But they said another would be added to the growing number of permanent barriers. The British army, meanwhile, said a board of inquiry was questioning two officers released Friday night after being "arrested" in Londonderry by the Provisional wing of the outlawed Irish Republican Army (IRA).

Leaders of the paramilitary Protestant Ulster Defense Association (UDA) said barriers came down at Lisburn and at Bangor.

The UDA has erected barriers to protest continued existence of two Catholic "no-go" areas in Londonderry manned by the police.

It was in the Bogside, one of these areas, that the two officers were seized Friday and held for 18 hours before being released.

The army identified them as Capt. Reginald J. Millard, 31, and Capt. John C. Cornwell, 33. Both arrived in Northern Ireland a month ago and were dressed in civilian clothes. Neither carried a weapon.

An army spokesman said the two might be subject to discipline.

An IRA statement said their release had been on "humanitarian" grounds and that a reciprocal gesture was expected from the army. The men, by their actions, had endangered the 12 - day - old army - Prov-

13 Thai Policemen Killed

BANGKOK (AP) — Thirteen policemen were killed and another seven seriously injured Friday in a Communist terrorist ambush against a police-unit in Southern Thailand, reports reaching Bangkok Saturday isional cease-fire, the IRA said.

The UDA has labeled some of its barricades permanent. They are on secondary streets, allowing soldiers and police access to the areas by other routes.

Among barriers put up Friday were a number around the predominantly Protestant Clonduff housing development in East Belfast. British troops moved in almost at once, fearing the 50-60 Catholic families in the neighborhood would be sealed in.

UDA and army officials met to discuss the Clonduff barriers. They agreed Protestant and Catholic residents alike would he allowed in and out subject to be allowed in and out subject to checks by barricade guards.
The UDA said troops could come in, but sot police.

The UDA said the Clonduff barriers would be removed at midnight Saturday. The other barricades, except for six, would be down by Sunday night, the UDA said.

Detourist Flyer Doesn't Attract

TEIGNMOUTH, England (UPI) — The organizers of the annual Harbor Fiesta are having second thoughts about the annual Harbor Fiesta are having second thoughts about the young language student from Exeter University who translated their program into Spanish for tourists.

After all 10,000 copies of the program had been distributed, a Spanish-speaking waiter told them what it said:

"Welcome to Teignmouth. We hope you will enjoy yourselves in the unfriendliest resort in Great Britain. There are many sharp people here who have many ways of taking your money, including the organizers of the annual Harbor Festival val.

"We hope you will not come back next year."